

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The City of Mobile is dedicated to making this a better world for its many children and families, and works to ensure the very best quality of life for all of our youth; and

WHEREAS, Recognizing that children benefit from being raised in a supportive, nurturing family environment, the City of Mobile supports initiatives that encourage their growth into healthy, productive adults and leaders of tomorrow; and

WHEREAS, The City of Mobile is blessed with a multitude of families that constitute a loving, supportive and caring network of people - and an essential part of our cultural, social and spiritual fabric - as strong families help build strong communities; and

WHEREAS, With the assistance and resources of community based organizations, we can help families of all shapes and sizes create a better future for all of Mobile.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William S. Stimpson, Mayor of the City of Mobile, do hereby proclaim April 20-26, 2014 as,

"Family Awareness Week"

And April 25, 2014 as,

"Family Awareness Day"

Done at the City of Mobile, Alabama this 25th day of April, 2014

Mayor William S. Stimpson