

From the Governing Body of the
CITY OF ORANGE BEACH, ALABAMA

Proclamation

- Whereas, strong family relationships constitute the foundation of our community; and
- Whereas, alienating behaviors are frequently seen in high-conflict divorces, separations and asymmetrical custody arrangements but can occur in intact marriages; and
- Whereas, Parental Alienation is a term used to describe any number of behaviors and attitudes on the part of one parent, both parents or third party designed to interfere, damage or destroy the relationship a child has with their other parent. It is a form of abuse that causes emotional trauma to children; and
- Whereas, Parental Alienation deprives children of their right to freely love and be loved by both parents, their extended families and robs children of their sense of security; and
- Whereas, approximately 40,000 children in the State of Alabama experience court ordered visitation with one parent for only two to six days a month; and
- Whereas, Parental Alienation Prevention Week is intended to increase the knowledge and understanding of this problem to help Alabamians, institutions, the legal and mental health community and leaders to better identify and combat this abusive behavior to children; and
- Whereas, in honor of Parental Alienation Prevention Week, come and show your support by taking ten minutes out of your day at noon, on Wednesday, April 25, to blow soap "Bubbles for Love." Each bubble we blow represents the love our children have and should be allowed to share with both their parents; and

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed by the Orange Beach City Council and Mayor that April 22 through April 28, 2018, is

PARENTAL ALIENATION PREVENTION WEEK

And April 25, 2018, is

PARENTAL ALIENATION AWARENESS "BUBBLES FOR LOVE" DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Seal of the City of Orange Beach, Alabama, this 17th day of April, 2018.

Tony Kennon, Mayor
