

Proclamation

City of Southlake

Whereas: Parental Alienation Awareness Day is celebrated to spread the simple message that children need to and should be allowed to give and receive the love of both of their parents and extended families; and,

Whereas, behaviors such as speaking negatively about a parent to, or in front of, a child can destroy the bond between a loving parent and child; and,

Whereas, with awareness comes education, understanding and the power to stop the abuse on innocent children caught in the crossfire of the people they love; and,

Whereas, this year is the 6th annual Parental Alienation Awareness Day and people around the world will join together in blowing bubbles for 10 minutes at noon on April 25, 2011 to show their support in spreading the simple message of love for all children; now,

Therefore, I, Mayor John Terrell, on behalf of the City Council, in recognition of this important event, do hereby proclaim April 25, 2011, as

Parental Alienation Awareness Day
